

Press Release -Immediate

Date - 21st July 2009

Lifetime Lab and Cork FM offer the chance to photograph Cork through the clouds

Lifetime Lab and Cork FM invite you to use your imagination and skill to photograph images on the theme of Water and be in with the chance to win an aerial photography flight.

The aim of the photographic competition is to capture images that celebrate the role of water in your community. It is open to everyone - young and old -from professional photographers to weekend snappers.

In addition to the top prize there is a special category for under 16's of a shirt autographed by Ireland and Manchester City star and Cobh native Stephen Ireland. Prizes for 2nd and 3rd will be guided tours and horse riding lessons from Lucky Meadows Equestrian Centre, Watergrasshill courtesy of Mr. Sean Kelly and Cllr. Kieran McCarthy.

The winning entries along with a number of other top entries will be publicly displayed at Lifetime Lab during Heritage Week including Water Open Day on August 29th.

For more details and entry form please see www.lifetimelab.ie

Notes to Editor

Lifetime Lab Water Open Day takes place on Saturday August 29th, Children and adults can learn about water and science from a team of volunteers operating activity stands throughout the day. Visitors will also be able to explore the permanent modern interactive exhibition on the themes of water, energy, nature and waste located at the Lifetime Lab visitor centre, view the boilers and huge steam engines that were used to pump water to supply the City of Cork. Lifetime Lab also has a coffee dock, picnic area and children's playground.

For further information, please view www.lifetimelab.ie or contact 021 4941500